PARTNERSHIPS

THEORY QUESTIONS

Q.1. What is Piecemeal payments method under Partnership Dissolution? Briefly explain the two methods followed for determining the order in which the payments are made?
(2 marks) (May 2010)
Ans. : Generally, the assets sold upon dissolution of partnership are realized only in small instalments over a period of time. In such circumstances the choice is either to distribute whatever is collected or to wait till whole amount is collected. Usually, the first course is adopted. In order to ensure that the distributed cash amongst the partners is in proportion to their interest in the partnership concern either of the two methods described below may be followed for determining the order in which the payment should be made.
(i) Maximum Loss Method: Each instalment realized is considered to be the final payment i.e. outstanding assets and claims are considered worthless and partners' accounts are adjusted on that basis each time when a deposit is made following either Garner Vs. Murray rule or the profit-sharing ratio rule.
(ii) Highest Relative Capital Method:According to this method, the partner who has the higher relative capital, that is, whose capital is greater in proportion to his profit-sharing ratio is first paid off. This method is also called as proportionate capital method.
Q.2. Explain Garner V/S Murray rule applicable in the case of partnership firms. State, when is this rule not applicable? (4 marks) (May 2013)

Ans. : Garner vs. Murray rule- Applicability

When a partner is unable to pay his debt due to the firm, he is said to be insolvent and the share of loss is to be borne by other solvent partners in accordance with the decision held in the English case of Garner vs. Murray. According to this decision, normal loss on realisation of assets is to be brought in cash by all partners (including insolvent partner) in the profit-sharing ratio but a loss due to insolvency of a partner has to be borne by the solvent partners in their capital ratio. In order to calculate the capital ratio, no adjustment will be made in case of fixed capitals. However, in case of fluctuating capitals, ratio should be calculated on the basis of adjusted capital before considering profit or loss on realization at the time of dissolution.

Non-Applicability of Garner vs Murray rule:

1. When the solvent partner has a debit balance in the capital account. Only solvent partners will bear the loss of capital deficiency of insolvent partner in their capital ratio. If incidentally a solvent partner has a debit balance in his capital account, he will escape the liability to bear the loss due to insolvency of another partner.
2. When the firm has only two partners.
3. When there is an agreement between the partners to share the deficiency in capital account of insolvent partner.
4. When all the partners of the firm are insolvent.

Q.9. Differentiate on ordinary partnership firm with an LLP (Limited Liability Partnership) in respect of the following:
(1) Applicable Law
(2) Number of Partners
(3) Ownership of Assets
(4) Liability of Partners/Members
(4 Marks) (May 2018)
Ans. : Distinction between an ordinary partnership firm and an LLP

| Key Elements | Partnerships | LLPs |
| :--- | :---: | :---: |
| Applicable Law | Indian Partnership Act, 1932 | The Limited Liability  Partnerships Act, 2008 |
| Number of  Partners | Minimum 2 and Maximum 20  (subject to 10 for banks) | Minimum 2 but no maximum  limit |
| Ownership of  Assets | Firm cannot own any assets.  The partners own the assets  of the firm. | The LLP as an independent  entity can own assets |
| Liability of  Partners/  Members | Unlimited: Partners are  severally and jointly liable  for actions of other partners  and the firm and their liability  extends to personal assets. | Limited to the extent of their  contribution towards LLP  except in case of intentional  fraud or wrongful act of  omission or commission by a  partner. |

Q.10. Write short notes on extent of liability of LLP and its Partners.

(5 Marks) (May 2018)
Ans. : Every partner of an LLP for the purpose of its business is an agent of the LLP but is not an agent of other partners. Obligations of LLP are solely its obligations and liabilities of LLP are to be met out of properties of LLP.
The partners of an LLP in the normal course of business are not liable for the debts of the LLP. The LLP is liable if a partner of LLP is liable to any person as a result of wrongful or omission on his part in the course of business of the LLP or with his authority. However, a partner will be liable for his own wrongful acts or commissions, but will not be liable for the wrongful acts or commissions of other partners of the LLP. Thus, a partner may be called to pay the liability of an LLP under exceptional circumstances.
If an LLP or any of its partners act with the intent to defraud creditors of the LLP or any other person or for any fraudulent purpose, then the liability of the LLP and the concerned partners is unlimited. However, where the fraudulent act is carried out by a partner, the LLP is not liable if it is established by the LLP that the act was without the knowledge or authority of the LLP. Where the business is carried out with fraudulent intent or for fraudulent purpose, every person who was knowingly a party is punishable with imprisonment and fine.

Q.11. Can a partner be called upon to pay the liability of the LLP? If yes, under what circumstances?

Ans. : Under section 27(3) of the LLP Act, 2008, any obligation of the LLP arising out of a contract or otherwise will be the sole obligation of the LLP.
The partners of an LLP in the normal course of business are not liable for the debts of the LLP. However, under section 28(2) of the LLP Act, 2008, a partner will be liable for his own wrongful acts or commissions, but will not be liable for the wrongful acts or commissions of other partners of the LLP.
Thus, a partner may be called to pay the liability of an LLP under exceptional circumstances.

Working Note:
As per Garner Vs. Murray rule, solvent partners have to bear loss of insolvent partner in their capital ratio.

Computation of Capital Ratio (of Solvent Partners)

|  | $P$ | $Q$ | $S$ |
| :--- | ---: | ---: | ---: |
|  | $(₹)$ | ₹ $)$ | $(₹)$ |
| Opening capital | $1,68,000$ | $1,08,000$ | $(18,000)$ |
| Add: General reserve | 38,000 | 28,500 | 9,500 |
| Capital reserve | 10,000 | 7,500 | 2,500 |
|  | $2,16,000$ | $1,44,000$ | $(6,000)$ |

Though S is a solvent partner yet he cannot be called upon to bear loss on account of insolvency of R because his capital account has a debit balance.

Therefore, capital ratio of $P & Q=216: 144=3: 2$
Deficiency of $R=₹\{(25,000+20,060)-(19,000+5,000)\}=₹ 45,060-₹ 24,000=₹ 21,060$.
Deficiency of R will be shared by P & Q in the capital ratio of 3: 2 i.e.
$\mathrm{P}=₹ 21,060 \times 3 / 5=₹ 12,636$
$\mathrm{Q}=₹ 21,060 \times 2 / 5=₹ 8,424$
